RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATES

The examination shall commence on the date notified earlier and continue from day to day except Public Holidays on such hours as have already been notified. Candidates suffering from any disease which would render their presence in the Examination Hall undesirable in the interest of other candidates will not be allowed to enter the Examination Hall. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened half an hour before the examination starts on the first day and fifteen minutes before on other days. No candidate shall be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination is started. However, a candidate may be allowed to enter the examination hall within 30 minutes from the start of the examination if permitted by the Centre Superintendent. Candidates should bring their own blue ink pens or blue ball pens and mathematical Instruments. No book or paper printed or manuscripts other than their Admit Cards should be taken into the Examination Hall. A candidate shall not also be allowed to bring scientific calculators, mobile phones and/ or any other electronic equipments with him to the examination hall. Candidates are not allowed to leave the hall until an hour after the examination starts. They should not leave their seats until they have submitted their answer books to an invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.

No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall after once quitting it on submission of his answer paper. In case of his/her urgent need, however, a candidate may be permitted by the senior invigilator to leave the hall temporarily and not more than once in an hour. The period of temporary absence should not ordinarily exceed three minutes. Candidates are not permitted to talk to each other in the Examination Hall. No one should receive help from or assist another in any manner. A candidate should write on the cover page of his/her answer book the Roll Number, the Registration Number, Date of Examination, Subject, Paper, Pass/Hons./Compulsory and such other distinguishing marks as are given to him or the Admit Card and should on no account write anywhere in his answer book his/her own name or anything that is not strictly connected with the answer to the questions given. Candidates should not, while in the Examination Hall write anything on the question papers. They should not also send the question paper for the examination outside the hall throughout the duration of the examination. If a candidate is found with any paper not connected with the examination as mentioned in 4 Supra he/she shall have to surrender it to the Invigilator on demand. Refusal to surrender the material or to make a statement shall render the candidate liable to instant expulsion from the Centre of examination. The candidate should on no account leave his seat or make any noise to call the Invigilator's attention to him. Candidates are required to behave properly and maintain absolute discipline inside the Examination Hall. Any candidate accused of misconduct inside or outside the Examination Hall will be seriously dealt with. The person of each candidate shall be checked at the entrance to the examination centre for each sitting and in the Examination Hall during the course of examination as and when the Centre Superintendent consider if necessary. Candidates refusing to submit to the check at the entrance shall be refused entry to the examination. Those refusing to submit to the check in the Examination Hall shall be liable to instant expulsion. Infringement by the Candidate any of the above rules will render him/her liable to expulsion from the examination hall by the Centre Superintendent and such further penalties as the Executive Committee may deem fit to impose.
